Explanatory Notes

This summary is not intended to replace the advice of a lawyer.

Attached is a Notice of Application for a Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration with respect to the estate of someone who has passed away. If there is a Will, it will be attached to the Notice. The person who has signed the Notice of Application is seeking to administer the estate by paying its debts and distributing its assets.

If you wish to oppose the issue of a Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration to the applicant named in the Notice, you must file a caveat with the Supreme Court. A caveat form is available at the Court Registry or under 'Rules and Forms' at www.yukoncourts.ca (Form 79). You must also file an affidavit (Form 59) that sets out the nature of your interest in the property of the deceased and states generally the grounds upon which the caveat is filed. After you file a caveat, you will be contacted by the Supreme Court to set up a case management conference with a judge. It costs $70 to file a caveat with the Supreme Court.
